could not possibly have monopolized the whole capital. The loans would have been more divided, and there would have been more interest and scrutiny necessarily caused by the operations of loaning an amount of two millions. It is my opinion, that "the public may bless their stars that the capital of that bank was no" smaller. Had it been ten times larger, there never would have been any difficulty.

P.

The Democracy of Hampshire County invited the Hon. Theodore Sedgwick of Stockbridge to deliver an address at Northampton. It not being convenient for him to comply with the request, he forwarded the following sentiment:

The Young Men of Massachusetts—May they give their support to that Government, which, by promoting the greatest equality of property, furnishes the best stimulant to individual exertion and private virtue.

To which the committee responded:

The Young Democracy of Hampshire—At the next election they will rally under the colors of their spirited friends in Berkshire, and elect a member of Congress who will sustain the administration, and never consent to be bound to the car of "solitary grandeur" against every State in the Union.

The following are a few of the regular and volunteer troops drawn at Northampton:

Martin Van Buren—The peoples' choice; elected by no narrow faction, sustained by no local prejudice; his faithful, unwavering and consistent support of the principles of freedom and of union, has won for him the suffrages of his country, from Maine to Missouri, from Alabama to Michigan.

By W. W. Thompson Esq. The last and present Administration—Connected by a bow of promise which it lures the cause of liberty and gladdens the hearts of patriots and philanthropists.

By Christopher Clarke. Robert Rantoul, Jr.—The hope of the democracy of Massachusetts; nobly has he sustained the cause of the people against the plots and plans of the Boston nobility.

By Dr. William Forbes, Massachusetts—May the dry limbs of whigerry fall off for four years to come, as fast as they have for four years that have past.

A Word to the Wise.—If the principle be once established that the office of Collector of Boston is to be filled by some person nominated by members of the Legislature, will it not follow, of course, that the office of Navy Agent, Naval Officer, Surveyor, District Attorney, United States Marshal, Post Master, &c. should be filled in the same way? The same principle carried out to its legitimate results, would fill all the subordinate offices of the Boston Custom House and Post Office with nominees of Legislative Caucuses; nor would the consequences rest here.

Newburyport, Gloucester, Salem, Barnstable, Plymouth, New Bedford, and every other town with either a Custom House or Post Office, would be provided for by these self-created officials, styled "Legislative Caucuses"; who, instead of attending to the business of their constituents, would fail to quarrel about United States officers, and interfering in every petty appointment in the Custom House or Post Office, from Newburyport to Northampton. In this way they would become the mere instruments of the intriguing office-seeker; and destroy not only the integrity of their party, and lose their own influence with their constituents, but involve the further progress of democratic principles in great, if not incurable difficulties.

We ask the candid and sober, who have inadvertently taken part in these Legislative Caucuses, for the nomination of Collector, to weigh well all the legitimate consequences likely to flow from the course they are pursuing in this matter. Let no false pride prevent them from retracting the steps they have taken, if upon more mature deliberation they shall be convinced that such proceedings are uncalled for, without precedent, contrary to the spirit of our democratic institutions and usages, and mischievous in their tendency.

Let the representatives from every county in the State, who are opposed to the interference of "Legislative Caucuses" in the removal or appointment of their respective United States officers, refrain from such interference in regard to Suffolk. Let one and all observe the golden rule, and "Do unto others as they would be done by" in like circumstances. This is the only course which political friends and brethren can pursue, with honor to themselves, and with just expectations of individual or party success in carrying out their principles.—Lowell Advertiser.

The Boston Advocate, after a deal of twatting about its patriotism, and its defence, and our abuse of the democratic members of the Legislature, &c. comes substantially to the conclusion that "the issue has now come" whether the editor of that paper and his adjutants shall have their own way about the Collectorship, or not, "and it must be settled one way or the other before the fall election." It must! Well then, so be it. We will hoot, however, and all others interested, that he cannot be accommodated. Should the appointing power be weak enough to succumb to threats of this sort, it would probably find infinitely more difficulty in other quarters than he can make, any way he can fix it. But we are right sure that these threats about the fall election will not be edified either in Massachusetts or the District of Columbia. The editor of the Advocate is as much dependent upon every body else, as every body else can be on him; and he is full as likely to be frightened as to fight. So it is not best for either party to try that game. As to the Collectorship, we don't care how soon it is settled—the sooner the better. It ought to have been done last year; but the Advocate then thought it was best to defer it till after the fall election. We did n't think so, but other councils and policy prevailed. And we now think it will again be deferred till after the fall election; and the Advocate and we shall be obliged to submit—we must, both of us.—Lowell Advertiser.

The Globe of Saturday last, contains the following pleasing intelligence:

"We are gratified to learn by a post bill, dated Washington, Pa., of March 14, that 'Gen. Jackson arrived in this town at six o'clock.' The report of his sickness at Frostville, turns out to be a federal fabrication. 'Tis wish was, father Harry, to the thought."

The venerable Chief will have reached Wheeling on the 15th instant, his 70th birth-day. May he enjoy many more of them!"

The news from Florida brings nothing decisive. The Indians were still talking about holding a talk.

Important from Pensacola.—The steamboat Watchman, which arrived yesterday from Pensacola, brought the subjoined alarming news. The Indian massacres, murders and wars, are they never to have an end?

An express arrived at Pensacola on Saturday evening from the agent of the Apalachee Indians, stating that several bodies of the hostile Creek Indians, which were estimated to amount from 300 to 400, were in the neighborhood of the Black Water, (about 30 miles from Pensacola,) and had murdered several families, and committed many other depredations. A meeting of the citizens of Pensacola was called, and raised a volunteer company of mounted men, and appointed a committee to wait on commandor Dallas, who had prepared an expedition to depart and we shall be obliged to submit—we must, both of us.—Lowell Advertiser.

Conspiracy Case.—An indictment for a conspiracy, "to raise wages and for other purposes," in the case of the Commonwealth vs Patrick McDonald, Frederick G. Rook, Sam'l Hager, and nine other journeymen cordwainers, was tried before the Sessions Court at Pittsburg, Pa., last week. From the Pittsburg Gazette, we learn that the cause was committed to the jury on Saturday evening, and on Monday morning, at the opening of the court, a sealed verdict was brought in, finding the three first named defendants guilty, and the others not guilty.

The Philadelphia Commercial Herald says, that the Legislature of New Jersey have authorized the Camden and Amboy Rail Road Company, to charge four dollars instead of three, for passengers going through in the day lines, and five dollars instead of four in the night lines. Last year, the number of passengers exceeded 200,000; therefore this will increase their receipts by near $300,000.

Plutus vs Hyman.—A rich spinster at Weymouth, Eng., has left a large property to five nieces, who are to enjoy it equally so long as they remain single. She who marries loses her share, which is to be divided among the survivors; if they all marry, the whole goes to a male relative.

Mr Roane, the new U. S. Senator from Virginia, was one of the Van Buren Electors in that State, and is grand-son of Patrick Henry.

In answer to numerous inquiries relative to the Democratic Magazine, we would inform the public that its publication will be commenced on the 1st of July.

An unsuccessful attempt was made on Wednesday night last to set fire to the office of the Metropolitan, printed at Georgetown, D. C.

Answer to a Conundrum in the Post.—Because—if they will not pay, they shall not hear the sound thereof.

OLD NORTH.

The Atlas said that Mr. Woodbury's bill came before the committee and was cut down by them—Col. Hall, a member of the committee informs us that this is untrue, and we believe it to be so—the Advocate did not confirm the statement of the Atlas—it only proved the propriety of Gov. Woodbury's charge. The Post did not deny that Dr. Waterhouse had received a letter from Mr. Woodbury—it denied that he had received such a letter as the Atlas described, and the publication of the letter proved our assertion true. We accused the Atlas of misrepresentation in its remarks about the vote relative to the Surplus Revenue, and proved the truth of our accusation, to the satisfaction of candid men. The Post did not deny that the Van Buren members of the Legislature had held a caucus and nominated Mr. Robinson for Collector; it denied that the account of that caucus was correct as published by the Atlas—fact admitted by the Atlas the next day, in which it corrected its mis-statements. The Atlas has made three wrong assertions in the short article to which this is in reply. Our neighbor's memory is failing, or else his love of truth is not increasing.

A correspondent recommends that the Committee of Public Safety be requested to investigate the subject of Graham's Lectures, and report whether they be proper or not; to ascertain the number of ladies who attended them—their names, professions, characters, &c. &c. and make a report to the city. A meeting of the committee will be held for this purpose at the hour of "High Change," in State street, this day, at the spot where the last sheep were exhibited on Saturday.

The "Board of Officers" for the examination of certain improvements in fire arms, assembled at Washington Arsenal, by virtue of "General Orders," of February 3d, having, with the approval of the Secretary of War, adjourned to meet on the 15th of June next, at West Point, N. Y., will, in accordance with the adjournment, there convene and resume their duties.

A fellow broke into the kitchen of the house of Mr. Allen, in Warren street, on Saturday last, helped himself to a handful of pan cakes, a few pounds of butter, and then decamped.

MERCHANT'S EXCHANGE NEWS ROOM, 3 New Orleans, 9th and 10th March, 1837.

It is expected that the difficulties in which some of our large houses (cotton factors) find themselves, will be satisfactorily settled in day or two. Agents from several banks in Natchez, &c. have arrived in town to-day, who have offered to do all that is necessary to that effect. Of all the large amount of responsibilities of those houses in difficulty, not one hundred and fifty thousand dollars are held by the trades-people of this city—of course, people in trade will not be at all affected by these difficulties.

We have been on in our Cotton Market until yesterday, when two or three buyers came in for small round lists at a decline from the top prices of about 12c. per lb. Our receipts are on a small scale for the season of the year, and prices will keep up with the continued good accounts from the Liverpool market.

The Failures.—The N. Y. Commercial of last evening has the following in relation to the subject of the recent heavy failures in New Orleans and New York:

There were several additional failures on Saturday, some of them heavy, both of merchants and brokers, although the stock market was more favorable on Friday.

The three Houses of Herman, Briggs & Co., Herman & Son, and Barrett & Co., resumed payments on the 10th inst. the arrangements with the Banks, having been completed.

One o'clock.—Wall street wears a gloomy aspect to day. The Messrs. Josephs have not resumed yet, and cannot decide on the course they must pursue, until officially advised as to the true state of their concerns at New Orleans.

Passengers who arrived by the Steamboat Lexington, which left New York on Monday afternoon, state that the Josephs would not resume payments—and that their effects had been assigned.

The news from Florida brings nothing decisive. The Indians were still talking about holding a talk.

POLICE COURT.—No less than five lads were yesterday brought up, as pilferers. The three first for stealing a brass kettle, and also being proved to be vagrant habits, were sent to the House of Correction. The other two, having stolen carpenter's tools, &c. to an amount beyond the jurisdiction of the Court were sent up to the Municipal for trial. The whole lot were precisely the kind of subjects for the Juvenile House. They were friendless and lawless.

A miserable creature, named Hopkins, for stealing a vest from the dwelling of Mr. Thomas Rowan, was sent to the House of Correction for two months.

A well whiskered sailor, for coming hard down upon some sober citizens, was fined $3.00 and costs.

MASSACHUSETTS LEGISLATURE.

Tuesday, March 21.—In the Senate, the consideration of the bill to increase the capital of the Merchants' Bank, was resumed, and the question being stated on its passage to a third reading, it was determined in the affirmative, 16, 14, 16.

In the House, pursuant to arrangement, the Report on the sixty-five petitions, from the citizens of various towns in the Commonwealth, protesting against the resolution of Congress in relation to petitions on slavery, was taken up. The report concludes with the following resolutions, which after a debate of two hours, were carried in the affirmative—Yea, 378—Nay, 16.

Whereas, the House of Representatives of the United States, in the month of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, did adopt a resolution, whereby it was ordered that all petitions, memorials, resolutions, propositions, or papers, relating in any way, or to any extent whatever, to the subject of slavery, or the abolition of slavery, without being either printed or referred, should be laid upon the table, and that no further action whatever should be had thereon, and whereas, such a disposition of petitions, then or thereafter to be received, is a virtual denial of the right itself, and whereas, by the resolution aforesaid, which is adopted as a standing rule of the present House of Representatives, the petitions of a large number of the people of this Commonwealth, praying for the removal of a great, social, moral and political evil, have been slighted and contemned; therefore,

Resolved, That the resolution above named is an assumption of power and authority, at variance with the spirit and intent of the constitution of the United States, and injurious to the cause of freedom and free institutions; that it does violence to the inherent, absolute and inalienable rights of man; and that it tends essentially to impair those fundamental principles of natural justice, and natural law, which are antecedent to any written constitutions of government, independent of them all, and essential to the security of freedom in a State.

Resolved, That our Senators and Representatives in Congress, maintaining and advocating the full right of petition, have entitled themselves to the cordial approbation of the people of this Commonwealth.

Resolved, That Congress, having exclusive legislation in the District of Columbia, possess the right to abolish slavery in the said District, and that its exercise should only be restrained by a regard to the public good."
